DELTA QUEEN STEAMBOAT
Iconic overnight steamboat is moving to Kimmswick, MO. After operating as a dockside hotel in Chattanooga, Tennessee from 2009 to 2014, the Delta Queen is undergoing a major restoration and making Kimmswick its new home port. The Delta Queen Steamboat Company corporate headquarters and the Port of Call Restaurant, Lounge, and Gift Shop opened in Kimmswick in 2016. The steamboat first provided passenger service in 1927 and is a National Historic Landmark.

CONNECTIVITY
Rail: Area served by Union Pacific (UP) Railroad and BNSF Railway.

POTENTIAL FUTURE PORT SERVICES
The Port Authority is exploring opportunities to develop a port in Jefferson County. Potential future services include general cargo dock, barge loading/unloading, dry bulk transloading, dry and liquid storage, and rail loop track for unit trains.

Potential future commodities moved include salt, grain, frack sand, and other dry and liquid bulk commodities.
