Body

ALL DIVISION AND DISTRICT ENGINEERS

We are furnishing you herewith several copies of the subject section of the Design Manual.

Please remove the entire section and replace it with the revised pages and figures.

Note that the Table of Contents is not included with this transmittal, but will be furnished to you in the near future.

Many areas have been revised and updated, thus necessitating a complete review by the Manual holder. One item of some importance to which your attention is called, is on Figure 14.3. A sketch has been added to illustrate the method of handling partial limited access where two roads may be in close proximity to each other.
