Subject: Revised General Special Provisions

Body

Attached are revised General Special Provisions and a revised Form D-14 which will be effective in the May, 1991 letting.

Revisions in addition to those stated in General Letter No. 3, June 15, 1990, and General Letter No. 8, November 14, 1990, are as follows:

Sec 104: A subsection has been added covering manufacturer's and contractor's warranties for electronic, electrical, and mechanical equipment furnished and installed by the contractor.

Sec 107: The subsection concerning the contractor's responsibility for claims for damage or injury is rewritten to include subcontractors and suppliers and clarifies the contractor's responsibility.

Sec 108: Subsection 108.11 has been added and states the conditions which may place a contractor in default of a contract with the commission.

Sec 109: Subsection 109.5.1 is revised and will require the engineer to make semi-monthly payment estimates in lieu of by-weekly estimates.

Sec 403: Subsection 403.8 revises requirements for the sieve shaker in the field laboratory.
